

Transforming East Alabama Mathematics

The East Alabama Partnership for the Improvement of Mathematics Education

Job Responsibilities of the School Teacher Leaders (STLs)

- Coordinate Activities at Your School
 - Work with individual teachers to improve their knowledge and skills.
 - Plan and conduct school-based planning and inquiry groups.
 - Develop a learning community at your school.
 - Districts and schools should ensure that adequate release time is provided for STLs.
- Change Agent for Individual Teachers
 - Serve as a peer coach to help teachers implement strategies advocated by TEAM-Math in their classrooms.
 - Co-teach with teachers to help them become comfortable with changes in instruction.
 - Do demonstration lessons to show that materials work with teachers' students.
 - Help teachers plan lessons utilizing the TEAM-Math Curriculum Guide, textbooks and other resources.
 - Provide advice for teachers concerning instruction and teaching responsibilities.
 - Debrief with teachers after observations.
- Change Agent for Groups of Teachers
 - Coordinate, design and/or deliver workshops for teachers at your school.
 - Use professional development modules created by TEAM-Math with teachers at your school.
 - Lead study groups for teachers at your school.
 - Facilitate planning meetings among departments or grade levels at your school.
- Vanguard for Reform
 - Create awareness of the TEAM-Math's agenda at your school.
 - Your classroom should serve as an existence proof for other teachers.
 - Engage teachers in discussions about the goals of TEAM-Math .
- Document all events
 - Evaluate and keep attendance of TEAM-Math related workshops.
 - Keep records of informational meetings that you conduct with teachers and/or administrators about TEAM-Math..
 - Keep records of parent activities that your school offers, including TEAM-Math nights Multicultural Literature, or similar events.
 - Complete TEAM-Math forms related to teacher observations, parental involvement meetings and events, and other work with teachers, administrators and other stakeholders.